

113th FA, Too, Anticipates An Enjoyable But Hard Time Here

Lt. Col. Edward Griffin Commands Famed Unit

Lt. Col. Edward F. Griffin commands the 113th Field Artillery Bn. of the 30th Infantry Division. He, his officers, and men anticipate an enjoyable stay at Atterbury while they are undergoing hard training.

He comes from Louisburg, N. C., where he was active in the National Guard training of the 113th Field Artillery Regt. from 1924 to 1938. At that time he was made commander of the 1st Battalion, and this battalion was redesignated as the 113th Field Artillery Bn.

In September, 1940, the 113th was inducted into Federal service as part of the 30th Division, and was sent to Ft. Jackson, S.C.

The 113th Field Artillery Regt. was attached to the British Army during World War I and fought in the Moutfaucou, St. Mihiel, and Meuse Argonne operations.

30TH QUARTERMASTER DIRECTS ALL SUPPLIES

Lt. Col. Thomas P. Van Noppen serves as 30th Division Quartermaster, directing the activities of the 30th Quartermaster Co.. Divided into four platoons, duties of the company range from supplying rations, gas and oil, by the service platoon; transporting all supplies, by the truck platoon, and clerical work both in the company and Division Headquarters.

SHE'S STILL MASCOT —DESPITE RATIONING

"Henrietta" is the sweetheart-mascot of Service Co. in the 119th Infantry.

During recent training the men of the company met this orphaned soul and adopted her, although their T. O. had no vacancies.

Seal Yule Greeting Cards

The Post Office Department this week advised soldiers to seal their Christmas greeting card envelopes if addressed to soldiers overseas. Members of the armed forces may continue to use "free mail." Any Christmas cards not conforming to the above regulation will be returned to the sender.

730th Ordnance Keeps the 30th In Good Repair

Lt. Col. Frank D. Pinckney is division ordnance officer and is assisted by Maj. Truman O. Ewing. Lt. Edward C. Miller is company commander.

Four sections make up the company: Company Headquarters, handling administration and supply of the company; Supply Section, responsible for the supply of spare parts necessary to the maintenance of all vehicles and weapons; Armament Section, charged with the inspection and maintenance of small arms, artillery pieces and instruments, and Automotive Section, performing all vehicular maintenance work.

KP Quiz Reporter Now Believes All!

Either KP “ain’t what it used to be,” or else KP’s are getting “chicken-hearted,” which means they don’t say nasty things about mess sergeants anymore. These were only a few of the interesting developments last week when the CAMP CRIER’S KP contest reporter made his rounds.

Expecting the KP’s to be mortal enemies of mess sergeants, the reporter dropped in on one of the first contingents of KP’s to arrive with the 30th Division; thus, finding only three “workhorses” in the 30th Division Band mess hall.

When asked the question of the week—“If you were a mess sergeant, what would you do to make KP easy—and why?”—the contestants astounded the reporter.

First, they shied at answering, with “KP is easy here,” and “We don’t want to answer that; we might say something to hurt the mess sergeant’s feelings.” (Apparently they are unaware of the fact that a mess sergeant has no feelings).

Finally, they answered! The winner was Pvt. John Vanmelli, who would “Have KP’s work ‘ab-lib,’ take their time, have plenty to eat, and in general, enjoy themselves.” (He and the mess sergeants are as different as day and night). He wins a book of theater tickets, weekly first prize.

Pfc. Philip Tobenkin would “have food cooked in town to eliminate pots and pans, and have my men eat with paper plates, knives and forks to do away with all work.” (Great idea! He’s also an improvement over “real mess sergeants”).

The third entry was Pfc. Vincent Tufano, who would “allow KP’s to start work anytime after Reveille they pleased.” (Little does he know that he would be doing all the work . . . all day).

KP’s from the 30th Signal Co. asked the mess sergeant for the afternoon off to pick the winners; were refused, but served as judges anyhow. They were Pfc. Joseph Fichtner, Irvin Burns, Emil Van Heffer, David Reardon, James Schooley and Pvt. Joe Newmon.

More USO-Camp Shows are being scheduled to play at Camp Atterbury than did last winter, according to Maj. LeRoy L. Wahle, post special service officer. This is due to all show units having reorganized into smaller Victory units.

Originally there were two circuits of USO shows, The Red circuit, made up of shows having large casts, and the White circuit, compact units which presented performances at small camps.

However, transportation and housing difficulties have forced a rearrangement. Now all USO-Camp Shows are compact Victory units, maintaining the same quality of acts and diversification of entertainment for all camps.

Attaboys, Reds Open Campaigns Tuesday

Two Post Fives To Make Debut At Sports Arena

Soldiers who like their basketball entertainment collegiate or semi-pro style, can have a "double dip" at the Sports Arena Tuesday evening.

The Attaboys and Atterbury Reds, camp varsities, will open play for the first time against the Crane Marines and Franklin USO quintet, respectively. Seats will accommodate 2,000 and admission is free. The preliminary game tip-off will be at 1900.

Springboard for a growing schedule of 20 games, the doubleheader should serve as an inventory on prospects for both clubs. The teams have been practicing in the Arena for three weeks.

MORE PLAYERS WANTED!

S/Sgt. Jerry Steiner, coach and former All-American cager, announced his starting berths are still far from definite and that the "welcome mat" is still out for all candidates. Experienced players from the 30th Division as well as other units are urged to report Friday night at 1930 for the final pre-season workout.

The roster of the Attaboys indicates games will be worth a hike to the Arena. Among the players are Don Beery, formerly with Indiana's Zollner Pistons, top-ranking pro; Doug Reid, hold-over from last season; Don Radtke, Creighton

BOXING RANKS No. 1 ON 30TH SPORTS LIST

Khaki clad fans who take their boxing seriously will have ample opportunity to exercise their lungs here at Atterbury. The 30th Infantry Division has one of the most potent boxing teams in the Army.

At Atterbury 30th Division boxers will have their own teams and tournament—as they had at Camp Blanding, Fla. Six of eight champs, crowned in the South, are still with the Division.

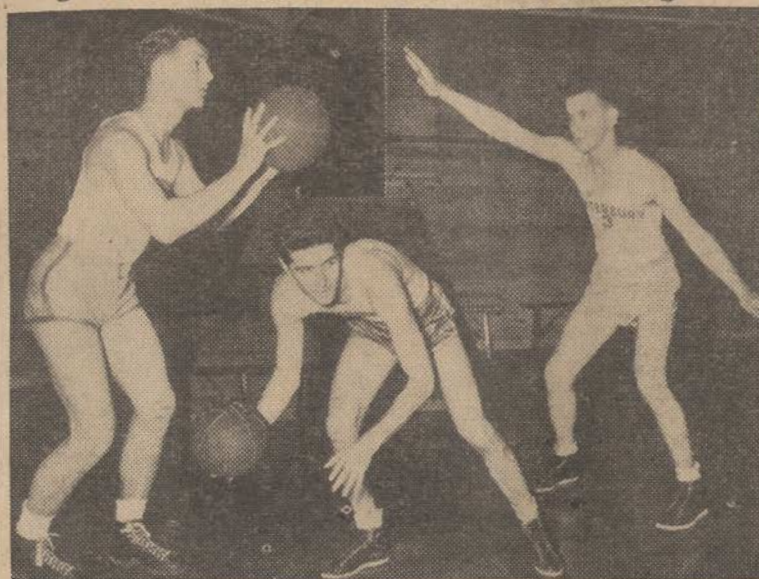

Champs still on hand include Pvt. Art Tatta, 119th Infantry, middleweight; Pvt. Johnny Martinez, 120th Infantry, featherweight; Pvt. Jack Wallin, Division Artillery, welterweight; Pvt. Pete Gonzalez, 117th Infantry, senior welterweight; Pvt. Henry Leveille, M. P. Platoon, light heavyweight; and Sgt. Josh Johnson, 120th Infantry, heavyweight.

INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

Tatta is listed first because he is the classiest boxer in the division. The 20 year stylist with the tremendous wallop is from New Haven, Conn. Undeclared in 12 starts since coming into the Army, Tatta had smashed his way to 35 triumphs in 37 starts before induction.

Unit Cage Loops Expand Rapidly

Intra-mural basketball warfare at Atterbury promises to be an epidemic which has already spread into four leagues and 40 different companies.

The 30th Division contemplates organizing leagues and mapping schedules to launch play within two weeks, according to Capt. James C. Coleman, assistant division special service officer.

Football Title Game Today

1560th Headquarters To Meet 773rd Again

Necessitated by a score-less tie in "Final Game No. 1" for the Atterbury touch football championship, "Final Game No. 2" will be played this afternoon at 1500 on the post field at Division and Clark Sts.

Headquarters Section, 1560th, and the 773rd Tank Destroyers, lone survivors in the 15-team tourney, tangled to a score-less finish Wednesday.

Headquarters advanced to the finals Monday by eliminating the 28th Medical Depot, 7-0.

After the 28th Medics had thrown a 5-3-3 defense at Headquarters with good results, the 773rd copied the style.

Headquarters failed to penetrate the 773rd's 30-yard stripe, while the latter threatened seriously only once inside Headquarters' 20 on a blocked punt.

Both teams adhered to a passing game, Joe DeCredico, a rifle-armed passer, completing a half dozen for the 773rd. Jerry Steiner, who intercepted a 773rd pass on his own 16 to break up the most serious threat, did Headquarters passing, but the defense bottled his receivers.

In the semi-final tilt with the 28th, gains from scrimmage were about even, but a 26-yard runback of a pass interception by Steiner provided the touchdown for Headquarters. Wick Hathaway booted the extra point.

...ing Bolinski, one of the most accurate shooters to report.

REDS DISPLAY SPEED

The Reds, sporting a fast-breaking offense led by Bennie McNeal, six-foot-seven former New York all-city center, promise to hold their own in the preliminary games this season. Other experienced Reds are Royal Vanbrankin; Red Nichols, a veteran semi-pro; Sgt. Olive Fuller, formerly with the Camp Campbell varsity; George Keith, Ft. Des Moines all-star pros, and Harry Van Dyke.

Bowling Loops Leads Continue Unchanged

Only one minor alteration was effected in three camp bowling leagues this week, that being in the 1537th Service Unit where the 428th Escort Guards climbed from third to second. The Medics (Post League), Personnel (Medical League), and 414th E. G. (1537th) still hold the leads.

Post League scores: Medics over Headquarters Section, 2-1; Rangers over Quartermaster, 2-1, and Finance over Post Headquarters, 2-1.

Medical League: A. and D. over Medical Supply, Dental Clinic over Odds and Ends, and Wards over Personnel, all by 2-1 counts.

1537th Service Unit: 428th over Flashes, 3-0; 414th over Hot Shots, 2-1, and 429th over Headquarters Co., 2-1.

Sgt. Al DePompei had 211 and 200 scores for Personnel and a 212 for the Medics. Other 200 keggers were: T/Sgt. Ray Golding, Hq. Sect., 204; Pfc. Chester Cross, 223, and Reidlebach, 217, both for Rangers; Lt. Lester Fogg, Hot Shots, 227, and Sgt. James Magee, Personnel, 200.

All-Star Pin Rollers Drop Out of First

Atterbury's all-star bowlers in the Columbus Recreation League were clipped by Brumy's Barbers Tuesday, 2 to 1, the loss knocking them out of a tie for first place.

Although all soldiers hit the 500 mark for three games, only S/Sgt. Ralph Neiner and Sgt. Al DePompei grazed the 200 mark with games of 200 and 220, respectively.

...form, is a crowd pleaser from way back. His chief guns are a solid right hand and the ability to absorb terrific punishment.

Wallin, slick southpaw welterweight from DeKalb, Illinois was undefeated in eight starts last season and won the title by kayoing Joe Vecchio, Special troops slugger.

OTHER TOP-NOTCHERS

Gonzales and Sgt. Barney Villa furnished the tournament's best bout of the championship matches, the former winning the middleweight championship. Gonzales is from Kansas City, Kans.

Henry Leveille, out of West Warwick, R. I., is king of the light heavyweights. "Hank" fought for the 117th Infantry last season and is now with the Division M.P.'s.

Johnson, heavyweight champ, won his honors the hard way; twice besting M.P. Harold Moore, who scales 237 pounds. Johnson and Moore have been tussling with each other for three seasons with honors about even. Josh, from Raleigh, N.C., scales 187.

The Division has other hot shot fighters—not champs, but classy performers. There's Pvt. D. C. Smith of the 117th, forced to forfeit the middleweight crown to Tatta when his outfit was quarantined; Pvt. Frank Ogrosky, lightweight runner-up; and Pvt. Felipe Frausto, spiderish stylist from Anaheim, Cal., who just missed in the bantamweight division.

PVT. HENRY LEVEILLE

...compiled this season scores in four opening games. Headquarters Section smothered 1537th Headquarters, 39-8; Medical Section nailed 428th Escort Guards, 22-10; Quartermaster Section clipped 429th Escort Guards, 27-22, and 1584th Headquarters won 27-20 over 414th Escort Guards.

Six games were played in the 17-team Tank Destroyer League. Scores were: 608th Hq. Co. over 608th Recon., 27-11; 608th Co. A over 608th Co. B, 33-19; 9th T. D. Hq. over 608th Co. C, 20-14; 610th Recon over 610th Hq. Co., 19-3; 610th Co. B over 610th Co. A, 16-15, and 773rd Hq. Co. by forfeit over 773rd Recon.

NEW LEAGUES READY

With leagues playing once each week, the Sports Arena program doubles next week as two more leagues start play. The Central League will open up tonight. Teams are 27th and 28th Medical Depots, 49th and 50th Field Hospitals; 36th Portable Surgical Hospital, 317th Station Hospital, and 721st Railway Bn.

Opening card for the 8th Detachment Gatling St. loop on Wednesday follows: 749th Med. San. vs 1560th Service Section, 42nd Sig. Hq. vs. 42nd Co. A, 42nd Co. B, vs. 587th Ambulance Co., and 588th Ambulance vs. 589th Ambulance.

"TEARS ON MY PILLOW"

Couldn't help missing two of 11 predictions last week. If Ohio State wants to boot a field goal in the locker room to win and Penn persists in doing a half-stoop weekly, my predictions may go haywire. Penn has misled the column three weeks straight).

Extending gratitude to the schedule-makers for keeping Penn idle this week, we give you the winners—potentially: Army over Brown—poor Brown; Michigan over Ohio State—also,

Duke All-American Helps Plan Division Special Service Events

Sgt. Jasper D. Davis plunked his foot locker down at Atterbury this week. The foot locker looked like a match box beside him. The 30th Division brought him.

If you haven't heard of Jasper D., but know about football, such as a Rose Bowl game in 1939; then you've probably heard of "Jap" Davis. He's a locomotive sized footballer from Duke university, where he toted the pigskin three years in the backfield.

And that isn't all! Besides being chosen on the third string all-American grid team by a nationwide writers' poll, Davis can pull out his scrapbook (if he has such) and find his name in the 1939 Rose Bowl lineup.

OTHER LAURELS

Adding glory to glory, Davis' leather-lugging career also includes being chosen to the College All-Star team for a fray with the Chicago Bears in 1941; playing in the annual North-South game in '40, and duty with the Western Army All-Star squad in the fall of '42.

How did he get that way? Simple! He weighs 225 pounds, is tall enough to look down at the crowd, can bowl over opposing players like ten-pins as a blocker and runner . . . well, that was enough for Wallace Wade, Duke coach.

Winning three varsity grid "D's," Davis justified Wade's placing him in the second-string quarterback blocking role as a sophomore. The Blue Devils, with Davis doing the bulk of blocking for all-American Eric Tipton, his teammate who is now with the Cincy Reds, stormed into the Rose Bowl to meet Southern California. A field goal by Tony Ruffa gave Duke a lead that lasted 59 minutes . . . in the 60th minute Southern Cal passed into paydirt to win.

GROUND GAINER

Davis was shifted to fullback for his junior and senior terms. In that role he really churned up the turf, garnering five touchdowns in 1939 and six more in 1940. His three-year ground-gaining average per rush was 6.1 yards.

SGT. JASPER D. DAVIS

The Army intercepted his career before he got a chance to turn pro, although he played against the Bears, Packers, New York Giants, Detroit and Chicago Cardinals with the Army All-Star squad. Before entering the Army he put in one year as assistant frosh coach at Duke.

"Jap" is now athletic non-com in Special Service of the 30th Division. And, incidentally, the Army mess sergeants have made a heavier footballer out of him. He now weighs 235.

MONDAY BOXING MATCH WITH FREEMAN TO OPEN SPORTS ARENA'S SEASON

Boxing will reach a new peak for action and interest here Monday night at 1900 in the Sports Arena. Some of the camp's best punch artists, forming a boxing team, will open their season against Freeman Army Air Field. Admission is free.

Both Freeman and Atterbury rosters list several experienced pugilists, weights ranging from 130 to 165. An example of the finished boxers to appear is the 165-lb. match between Peterson of Freeman and Sam Malone, 1584th Service Unit here. Each has fought over 50 bouts.

Pfc. Lee Pacheco, 755th Railway Bn., and Pvt. Bob Howard, 27th Med. Depot, 140-pounders who showed considerable class on Service club cards, are also on the Atterbury team. Other Atterbury scrappers are: Pvt. DeWitt Hollis, Pvt. James Lee, and Pvt. Albert Johnson, all of 1584th S. U., Pvts. Leo Bordigon and Joe Bynam, of the 1537th.

PX No. 3 RESTRICTED TO FOLLOWING UNITS

Units allowed to use PX No. 3 are as follows: 9th T. D. Group; 773rd, 608th and 610th T. D. Bns.; 27th and 28th Medical Depots; 735th and 737th M. P. Bns.; 301st Signal; 3532nd and 122nd Ordnance Ccs., and 721st and 755th Railway Bns.

Indiana's Warm! So Says Officer

If the inhabitants of the sunny south think Indiana is cold, they should talk to Lt. Clayton L. Shedivetz of the 105th Medical Bn.

As an enlisted man, Lt. Shedivetz worked on the Alcan Highway at temperatures as low as 70 degrees below zero, and at places only 2 degrees from the Arctic Circle. He also declared that the nights from June 15 until July 15 were so bright that one could read a newspaper at any hour.

When the weather was coldest, the troops "holed up"—laid off work —in their pyramidal tents. They grew, beards which froze with frost, and ate stew which chilled so quickly that ice formed before the plates were emptied.

Lt. Shedivetz reports that the Alcan Highway is a good two-way highway. He rode down 1400 miles of it in a bus on his way back to the States. The lieutenant says he was glad to get out of that cold country into a warm country like Indiana.

"DUST"

Pals Meet Once More —At 197th Sick Call

Edward Beckley and Walter Siesko were teammates in high school 15 years ago at Nanticoke, Pa. After graduation, Siesko became an officer in the National Guard and Beckley went on to medical school to become a doctor.

Later, Siesko resigned his commission to accept a position in the Civil Service Commission in Washington, D. C. Came the war, and he was assigned to Hq. Btry., 197th Field Artillery.

He went on sick call one day, troubled with a cold, and discovered his medical officer was none other than Edward Beckley—now Capt. Beckley. The reunion brought talk about the "old times," and Siesko left the dispensary feeling swell—without getting a single pill.

Turkey's Coming! Here's Super Menu For Thanksgiving

It's coming, soldiers! Yep, that turkey is on its way, according to Capt. Harry S. Decker, post food service supervisor. And the birds will be here in plenty of time for a good roasting before you claim your share on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25.

Also on the menu for the big dinner are all the "extras." It is a super menu for super appetites. Here are the ingredients (listed in the order of appearance):

- Fruit cup (just a starter).
- Roast Turkey, dressing, gravy (seconds, too).
- Cranberry sauce (optional).
- Mashed potatoes (no lumps).
- Buttered Peas (ration points not required).
- Corn (not the Bob Hope kind).
- Tomato and lettuce salad (healthful, too).
- Celery (to keep next guy awake).
- Assorted pickles (one big one, three little ones, etc.).
- Pumpkin pie (um-m-l).
- Apples, grapes, candy, nuts (only one pocketful to a soldier).
- Coffee (that's all, brothers—and sisters).

120TH SHARPSHOOTERS EYE RECORDS HERE, TOO

Men of the 120th Infantry are looking forward to firing on the Atterbury ranges—so that they can try for more records. On the Camp Blanding, Fla., range they displayed their shooting ability.

Pvt. Charles Twarkins, Co. E, piled up 284 points with the M1 rifle on the "B" qualification course. Pfc. Henry C. Hanes, Cannon Co., scored

30TH ARRIVAL BRINGS FAMILY REUNION

Separated by induction 13 months ago, the Gilbert brothers—Pfc. Otho (left) and Cpl. Clark—enjoyed a reunion this week when the division arrived. Otho, of Headquarters Section, 1560th Service Unit, has been at Atterbury since induction. Clark, Btry. A, 230th Field Artillery, finally caught up with his brother this week. Their home is in Catonsville, Md.—(U. S. Signal Corps Photo.)

212 points with the same rifle on the "C" qualification course.

With the heavy machine gun, Cpl. Benjamin J. Lariocia, Co. D, was high with 188. Pfc. Frank J. Gross, Co. B, scored 232 with the light machine gun. With the B.A.R., Pfc. Arthur F. Frable, Anti-tank Co., led the entire division by scoring 168 points. The pistol dismount course was taken over by Pfc. Heinz Winkler, Co. F, with an 87 per cent average.
